Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/22

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

AFFIDAVIT OF WILLIAM CHARLES BEVAN, JR.

1. My name is William Charles Bevan, Jr., and I am over the age of 18 years and otherwise competent to testify. I have personal knowledge of the facts herein.
2. I own a 2001 Chevrolet Corvette.
3. I have testified in my filed bankruptcy schedules that the Corvette has a fair market value of $5,000.00. This valuation is based on several facts.
4. One basis is that the vehicle was damaged when it was towed several years ago, and the damage was not fixed. When I contacted Chevrolet approximately two years ago, I was told it would cost at least $4,000.00 to repair the undercarriage damage.
5. A second basis is that the vehicle has not been driven in over three years and likely does not run.
6. A third basis is that the vehicle has been sitting uncovered in the open for the past five years, and has mold.
7. A fourth reason is that I believe it is likely the engine is damaged because the antifreeze has not been changed in the past 22 years.

EXHIBIT RE SCHEDULE B, 3.1

8. For all of the foregoing reasons, I estimate that there is a minimum of $10,000.00 required to restore/repair the vehicle.

I DO SOLEMNLY DECLARE AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.
